

Supported by funding from
L.A. COUNTY MEASURE H
REAL HELP. LASTING CHANGE.

CHRISTINE MARGIOTTA

Appointed by Supervisor Sheila Kuehl, Third District

Christine Margiotta is passionate about channeling our collective power to create enduring justice and community. As Executive Director of Social Justice Partners (SJP) Los Angeles, she brings people together to fuel systemic transformation and seeks to co-create liberatory workplace practices within SJP and beyond. Christine launched SJP's Systems Change Accelerator to bolster early-stage social justice initiatives and Anti-Racism for White People to support leaders in championing racial justice.

Throughout her career, Christine has leveraged a blend of community organizing, grantmaking, and policy change to create progress on racial and economic justice, homelessness, and LGBTQ+ rights. Christine designed and led Home For Good at United Way of Greater LA, an initiative to end homelessness that leveraged over $1 billion to create housing for 35,000+ Angelenos in her time there.

Christine is a graduate of Scripps College and received her MSW from UCLA. She lives in Claremont with her wife and their two kids, Huck and Vivian. She serves as the Chair of the L.A. County Measure H Citizens' Oversight Advisory Board and she is a founding Board member of Claremont Change, an effort to end racism in Claremont policing.